

OKLAHOMA CITY WOODCARVERS CLUB

On the web at www.okcarver.org

The Oklahoma City Woodcarver's Club meets on the 4th Tuesday of each month at the Will Rogers Garden Exhibition building, located at 3400 NW 36th Street in Oklahoma City. The Club is a 501c(3), nonprofit organization which promotes interest in, and appreciation of, woodcarving. The club thrives on an interested, active membership that devotes its time and talents to a variety of programs which include demonstrations, instruction, workshops, exhibitions, and social functions. The club does have demonstrations in many of the local schools and libraries around the greater OKC area.

Demonstrations

Club members participate in demonstrations throughout the year at various locations in the OKC area. Some of the favorites are the Spring Arts Fair in Downtown OKC and the Oklahoma State Fair. Members congregate weekly at various locations to carve, visit, and help newer carvers. Some of these are MWC Sr. Center – Monday pm, Woodson Park – Wednesday am, Edmond Sr. Center – Thursday pm, Church of the Servant – Monday evening, Moore Brand Center – Thursday am, Yukon Sr. Center – Mon. Tues. Wed. & Fri. am.

Events

'Artistry in Wood' is the Club's annual show and sale held on a weekend late in October at the Will Rogers Garden Exhibition Center, 3400 NW 36th Street in Oklahoma City. 'Artistry in Wood' is open to the public and brings local and regional artisans works of art in wood, to be judged, put on display, and sold. Various seminars & demonstrations will be held to educate and entertain both adults and youth. The Club sponsors other seminars taught by club members and artists invited from outside of Oklahoma.
